Appearance

Swiss Valley is a family-oriented business that adheres to a strict appearance and behavior code which in part consists of the following:

- No unnatural hair color.
- No facial jewelry, which includes nose rings, tongue studs, nose studs, eyebrow studs, large earrings.
- No excessive or obscene tattoos.
- No extremely oversized clothing.
- No obscene, vulgar, or profane language, which includes text and images on clothing.
- I understand I may be asked to take a drug test.

It is important that our image and professionalism be maintained. Any deviation from these codes may result in your dismissal.

Wages: Paid bi-weekly. After 6 months, any uncashed payroll checks will be considered donated to our "Ski Dollars At Work Fund".

NOTICE TO INSTRUCTORS: Please be advised that although a written attendance schedule is published based on your own submitted volunteer schedule, you are only considered "on the job" at the time you have been assigned a lesson by the acting Ski School Duty Director, and until the completion of that assigned lesson. Immediately after completion of each assigned lesson, you are expected to report back to the Ski School Duty Director and fill out your pay sheet with all pertinent requested lesson information. Payment you receive as an employee is for the completion of assigned lessons only. If you have not been assigned a lesson or duty by the Ski School Duty Director, be further advised that you are considered on your own time, and if you choose to free ski or snowboard, you are doing so at your own risk.

By signing this application below you are agreeing to these terms.
