Chalet Dining Room Etiquette

Table camping prevents others from enjoying the Swiss Valley experience, On high volume days you may be asked to move your party to the fireplace lounge or upper lodge after an extended period of time.

To provide a comfortable and functional environment for all guests and staff, please keep children seated at your table during your visit with us in the Chalet.

We encourage a social atmosphere. Please feel free to visit with other Chalet patrons but if you move to a different table please let your server know first. You may be asked to close your tab and start a new one.

Please do not move tables or take chairs from other tables. Our staff will be happy to accommodate you by providing extra chairs and tables if needed.

Please be mindful if you have additional guests join your party after you have ordered, your meals may come out at separate times.
